

Name : _____

Affect Vs Effect

“Affect” means to have an effect on.

“Effect” means a result, or to cause something to happen.

Examples: The medicine had a calming effect. (noun)

We can affect peace by standing united. (verb)

An irregular sleep pattern will affect your performance in the exam.

The government is trying to effect changes in the education sector.

Complete each sentence.

1) The adverse _____ serious concerns.

2) Mom's lullabies _____ Cindy.

3) Lucy's foul mood _____

4) Will the new rule _____?

5) The special _____ are admirable.

6) Playing video games _____ eyes.

7) We hope the new teacher will _____ a rapid increase in our grades.

8) The continuing rains will _____ our Christmas sales.

9) The new policy is sure to _____ tremendous growth in the economy.

10) Tom was remarkably _____ by the movie.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com