

Name : _____

Its Vs It's

"Its" is the possessive form of it, meaning belonging to something already mentioned.

Example: The puppy slept in (its) kennel.

"It's" is the contracted form of it is, it was, or it has.

Example: (It's) a beautiful house.

Complete each sentence using its or it's.

1) The lion is in _____ den.

2) This is r _____ y.

3) The cat uses _____

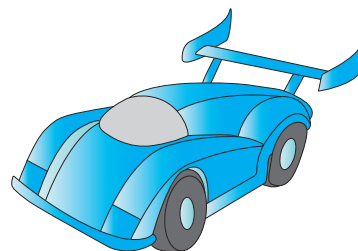

4) _____ made to beat the heat.

5) _____ a colorful butterfly.

6) Dad bought me a car. _____ expensive.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com