A Treat For Alice

by Katie Clark

Alice was at school. Class was over and now it was time to go home. Alice hopped from foot to foot. She watched the car line. She could not wait to go.

Mommy had said that today Alice would get a treat. What could it be? A new toy? An ice cream cone? A fun trip?

First Alice saw a red car. Mommy did not drive a red car. Next Alice saw a blue car. Mommy did not drive a blue car. The third car Alice saw was white.

Mommy drove a white car!

But Mommy was not alone. Grandma sat beside her. Grandma had come to visit! That was the best kind of treat.
