

Name : _____

Insect Week

by Liana Mahoney

It was Insect Week. Ryan needed an insect to bring to school. A cool one.

He went outside with his camera, a net, and a small bin. The net and bin would help him catch and keep the bug and the camera? Well, he didn't go anywhere without that!

First, he flipped over a log. The ants were so tiny! He took a quick picture with his camera.

Next, he went to the grass. He looked up at the underside of the leaves. So many caterpillars! One of his eye, he saw many. He snapped a quick picture with his camera. The caterpillar fell from the tree and disappeared. It was a grasshopper, but it had a colorful pattern. It flew away as he reached for it. He took a picture with his camera before darting back.
