

How Does Your Garden Grow?

by Katie Clark

Harriet knelt in the grass near the rose bush. Aunt Jessica was working inside the house, so she had given Harriet the job of taking care of the garden. Harriet needed to pull the weeds from the ground. She pulled many times, and soon green, scraggly weeds were pulling them out. When she pulled the weeds from the rose bush, she moved

Next, it was time to water the plants. Harriet took the hose from the rack on the side of the house. Then she returned to the garden.

Harriet knew that the sun in the sky. It showed that it was a good day to water the plants.

Now Harriet was happy to help Aunt Jessica. She had learned to thank her for her help. Harriet thanked her for her help and asked her to help her clean it, too.

While cleaning with Aunt Jessica, Harriet found a box of garden tools. Aunt Jessica said she could keep them if she'd like. When they finished inside, Harriet took the tools outside to work some more in the garden. She learned she liked growing things. She wanted to do it some more. Maybe soon she and Aunt Jessica could plant new seeds that would grow into beautiful plants. Maybe she could even find a few books about gardening that she could read. Someday she would like to be a master gardener.
