Ocean Breeze

by Katie Clark

Hard pavement sidewalks melt slowly to sand.

Bright sun and surf surround coastlines so grand.

Blue up above and bright blue down below.

Oceans so vibrant, their waters aglow.

Whispering wind

Tiny glass pellets,

Soft ocean breeze

Sailing on breeze

Looking for supper, an endless supply.

Climb from the water, fly kites on the shore.

Breezes will keep them afloat even more.

Soon it is time to bid seashores goodbye.

Visit again when the breeze starts to fly.
