Second Conditionals

The second conditional is used to imagine an unlikely present or future situation. To form a second conditional, we use the past simple in the "if" clause and "would/could" and infinitive in the other clause.

Example: I would travel around the world if I won a lot of money.

~~a)~~ would      b) will

Fill in the blanks with the correct forms of verb to make second-conditional sentences. Check the correct option.
