

Name : _____

Double Negatives with Adverbs

Adverbs of frequency such as hardly, scarcely, rarely, barely, seldom have a negative meaning. They are used without not.

Example: I can't barely walk in these new shoes.

I can barely walk in these new shoes.

Rewrite each sentence by correcting the double negative and retaining the adverb.

1) Maria and Brad hardly don't meet each other.

2) Alligators aren't rarely found in California.

3) Mrs. Simpson rarely doesn't use her credit card.

4) Ella isn't seldom late for a meeting.

5) Mr. Wilson's voice wasn't barely audible without the microphone.

6) Hardly no one writes letters these days.

7) Jacob hadn't scarcely finished eating when Mom called.

8) The children couldn't scarcely remain awake for dinner after the day-long hiking.
