

Name : _____

A metaphor is a direct comparison of two different objects. Unlike similes, metaphors don't use "like" or "as" for the comparison, and equate one object with the other directly.

You are the apple of my eye.

Children are angels.

She has a heart
of gold.

The cloud is a fluffy pillow.

