

My Journey

by Karunyah B

Underline the examples of personification within this poem.

The first rays of the sun tiptoed into my place, through the windowpane kissing my face.

The marigolds in the yard danced with grace,
enjoying the morning in nature's embrace.

I heard my shoes calling to go out and play with Packed with snack, with
And out we set with n

We spoke to a horse th
and smiled at the dove
We relaxed on a park k
and spent our time thi

We ate our snack and along the river meandering over the plain.

Then, all of a sudden, invaded the rain,
loading a million photos into my brain.

I had a great time as a kid in the wood,
and would roll back the clock, if I could.
