

Helping Verbs

A helping verb, or auxiliary verb, precedes the main verb in a sentence. It adds details, such as time and mood, to the main verb.

Example: All students must wear ID cards inside the school campus. (must / am)

Choose the correct helping verb to complete each sentence.

1) My mom _____ knitted a sweater for me. (have / had)

2) Juana _____ :

3) He _____ not

4) The picture of the _____

5) The soldiers _____

6) Ralph _____ k

7) I _____ writte

8) The berries _____ be soaked in sugar overnight. (have / should)

9) You _____ solved the puzzle in minutes. (has / have)

10) Linda _____ tried all the recipes. (have / has)

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

_____ ek. (were / was)

_____ e) _____ ve / had)

