

Name : _____

The Seven Principles of the U.S. Constitution

Constitutional Principle	Explanation
Popular Sovereignty	Popular sovereignty means the rule by the people based on 'classical liberalism' that emphasizes the freedom of the individual by limiting the power of the government.
Republicanism	Republicanism is a political theory that believes in representative government, in which citizens can vote for people to represent them. The supreme power rests with the people to vote.
Federalism	Federalism is a system of government in which the power is divided between the national government (federal) and various state governments. The division of power creates a balance of power.
Separation of Powers	The separation of powers is a system of government in which the powers of three branches that are the executive, legislative, and judicial branches. Under the separation of powers, each branch of government has a specific role.
Checks and Balances	Checks and balances is a system of government in which each branch of government has the ability to check or limit the powers of the other two branches. This prevents any one branch from oppression and domination.
Limited Government	Everyone is bound by the U.S. Constitution and the "supreme Law of the Land". This ensures that none, whatever their position, is above the law.
Individual Rights	The personal freedoms and liberties of the people are guaranteed by the Bill of Rights and cannot be taken away by the government.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com