

Name : _____

Basic Principles of the U.S. Constitution

Read the statements and choose the appropriate constitutional principles.

1) One branch of the government can limit the actions of the other branches under the principle of _____ .

- a) Republicanism                      b) Separation of Powers                      c) Checks and Balances

2) The state government and the federal government share power based on the principle of _____ .

- a) Federalism

3) The Bill of Rights was _____

- a) Checks and Balances

4) _____ representatives.

- a) Limited Government

5) The governmental _____

- a) Individual Rights                      b) Limited Government                      c) Separation of Powers

6) The government is divided into three branches according to the principle of _____ .

- a) Separation of Powers                      b) Popular Sovereignty                      c) Republicanism

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

Republicanism

the principle of

Limited Government

people to elect their

Republicanism

of