

Multi-Digit Addition & Subtraction

- 1) A soda factory produced 960,900 bottles of soda in May. The factory produced 660,650 bottles in June. How much did the production drop by?

- 2) An Olympic athlete trains for 1,440 hours in the first six months. She increases the training regime and puts in a total of 2,150 hours in the next six months. How many hours

- 3) A city produces a certain amount of waste each year, of which 2,220 tons get recycled. How much waste is left?

- 4) Britney's sister goes to a university with 12,500 undergraduate students and 13,400 graduate students at the university. What is the total number of students at the university?

- 5) Matthew, a wheat farmer, harvested 55,641 bags of wheat this year. If he has 2,345 bags left unsold, how many bags of wheat has he already sold?

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

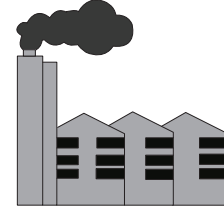

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

Multi-Digit Addition & Subtraction

- 1) A soda factory produced 960,900 bottles of soda in May. The factory produced 660,650 bottles in June. How much did the production drop by?

300,250 bottles

- 2) An Olympic athlete trains for 1,440 hours in the first six months. She increases the training regime and puts in a total of 2,150 hours in the next six months. How many hours

3,590

- 3) A city produces a certain amount of waste, of which 2,220 tons get recycled. How much waste is not recycled?

6,331 tons

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

- 4) Britney's sister goes to a university with 13,456 undergraduate students and 13,456 graduate students at the university. What is the total number of

70,881 students

- 5) Matthew, a wheat farmer, harvested 55,641 bags of wheat this year. If he has 2,345 bags left unsold, how many bags of wheat has he already sold?

53,296 bags

