

Addition & Subtraction within 20

- 1) There are 13 sacks of cabbage and 19 sacks of lettuce at the produce market. How many more sacks of lettuce than cabbage are there?

- 2) Fiona donated 7 blankets to an aged care facility. Annie donated 7 blankets. How many blankets were donated by Fiona and Annie?

- 3) Mom is making orange juice. How many oranges does she need for a pack of 8 oranges, if she has 12 oranges?

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

- 4) Brad wrote 16 stories. What is the total number of stories if Brad and Mark wrote 24 stories together?

_____ as Mark wrote _____ of stories Brad

- 5) There are 17 science books and 2 math books on a shelf in Mr. Preston's study. How many science and math books are in the study?

Addition & Subtraction within 20

- 1) There are 13 sacks of cabbage and 19 sacks of lettuce at the produce market. How many more sacks of lettuce than cabbage are there?

6 sacks

- 2) Fiona donated 7 blankets to an aged care facility. Annie donated 7 blankets. How many blankets were donated by Fiona and Annie?

14 blankets

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

- 3) Mom is making orange juice. She has 4 oranges and a pack of 8 oranges, how many oranges does she have?

12 oranges

- 4) Brad wrote 16 stories. What is the total number of stories if Brad and Mark wrote 7 stories together?

23 stories

- 5) There are 17 science books and 2 math books on a shelf in Mr. Preston's study. How many science and math books are in the study?

19 books

