

Name : _____

Adjectives and Adverbs

The adjective and adverb are highlighted in green and orange respectively. Point an arrow from the adjective toward the the noun it modifies. Point the arrow from the adverb toward verb it adds details to.

Example: Abraham Lincoln was a very honest man. He spoke honestly.

1) Zack is passionate about cars. He collects them passionately.

2) The TV show was gr

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

3) Mrs. Miller was proud

the news proudly.

4) Are you nervous thi

cing at the files?

5) Rhea wore an elega

arty.

6) Amanda is an obedi

ntly.

7) The story was very brief. The teacher narrated it briefly.

8) The fire engine made a loud noise. It blew its horns loudly.

Name : _____

Adjectives and Adverbs

The adjective and adverb are highlighted in green and orange respectively. Point an arrow from the adjective toward the the noun it modifies. Point the arrow from the adverb toward verb it adds details to.

Example: Abraham Lincoln was a very honest man. He spoke honestly.

1) Zack is passionate about cars. He collects them passionately.

2) The TV show was great

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

the news proudly.

4) Are you nervous this

cing at the files?

5) Rhea wore an elegant

arty.

6) Amanda is an obedient

ntly.

7) The story was very brief. The teacher narrated it briefly.

8) The fire engine made a loud noise. It blew its horns loudly.