

Name : _____

Adverbs

Underline the adverbs in the story.

Brenton ran excitedly toward the water. Waves crashed loudly in the distance, and birds soared majestically overhead. It was his family's trip to the beach.

Brenton loved splashing in the waves, diving underwater, and digging eagerly for shells in the sand.

He had a small chest where he would take the seashells.

Grandma used to come to the beach with him at home now. Brenton knew she would give him the idea for the treasure hunt.

In the water, Brenton saw a girl nearby. She did the same thing as he.

"Are you looking for shells?"

"Yes," she said. "Are you?"

"Yep," he answered.

They searched for shells.

"Do you come to the beach often?" Brenton asked.

"We come daily," said the girl.

Brenton started to reply, but his fingers touched something hard. He quickly pulled up the object. It was a sand dollar! Grandma would love to have one of these.

Soon he had filled his small chest with seashells for Grandma. He couldn't wait to present her with this special treasure.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

Adverbs

Underline the adverbs in the story.

Brenton ran excitedly toward the water. Waves crashed loudly in the distance, and birds soared majestically overhead. It was his family's trip to the beach.

Brenton loved splashing in the waves, diving underwater, and digging eagerly for shells in the sand.

He had a small chest where he would take the seashells.

Grandma used to come home now. Brenton knew she gave him the idea for the beach.

In the water, Brenton saw a girl nearby. She did the same thing.

"Are you looking for shells?"

"Yes," she said. "Are you?"

"Yep," he answered.

They searched for shells.

"Do you come to the beach often?" Brenton asked.

"We come daily," said the girl.

Brenton started to reply, but his fingers touched something hard. He quickly pulled up the object. It was a sand dollar! Grandma would love to have one of these.

Soon he had filled his small chest with seashells for Grandma. He couldn't wait to present her with this special treasure.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com