Adverbs

An adverb is a word that modifies the meaning of a verb, an adjective, or another adverb.

Example: Dr. Watkins listens to all the complaints \(\text{patiently}\).

How?

Circle the adverb and state whether that adverb describes “how”, “when” or “where” an action has taken place.

1) Our flight took off smoothly.

2) Edwin came to school early.

3) A tortoise walks slowly.

4) Mathew is visiting his aunt tomorrow.

5) Drake lives upstairs.

6) Lily came late to the birthday party.

7) We have an old library here.

8) Wendy distributed the candies equally among the students.

9) The fisherman held his fishing rod tightly as he felt a strong tug.

10) The leaves have fallen everywhere.
Adverbs

An adverb is a word that modifies the meaning of a verb, an adjective, or another adverb.

Example: Dr. Watkins listens to all the complaints patiently.

How?

Circle the adverb and state whether that adverb describes “how”, “when” or “where” an action has taken place.

1) Our flight took off smoothly.
   How?

2) Edwin came to school early.
   When?

3) A tortoise walks slowly.
   How?

4) Mathew is visiting his aunt tomorrow.
   When?

5) Drake lives upstairs.
   Where?

6) Lily came late to the birthday party.
   When?

7) We have an old library here.
   Where?

8) Wendy distributed the candies equally among the students.
   How?

9) The fisherman held his fishing rod tightly as he felt a strong tug.
   How?

10) The leaves have fallen everywhere.
    Where?