

Alliteration

Alliteration is when consonants at the beginning of two or more sounds are repeated. This stylistic device creates a musical effect and enhances the pleasure of reading a literary piece.

Example: _____ Fluffy _____ white clouds floated freely in the sky.

Complete each sentence with an appropriate word to make it alliterative.

1) Peter Piper picked p _____

2) Harry happily _____

3) Five furry foxes froli _____

4) Gabby _____

5) _____

6) Bobby's big blue _____

7) The newt nuzzled ir _____

8) The teacher taught a lesson on tigers and _____ .

9) Judy joyfully joined the _____ jackrabbits.

10) The _____ roses were wrapped in radiant ribbons.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com