

Alliteration

Alliteration is when consonants at the beginning of two or more sounds are repeated. This stylistic device creates a musical effect and enhances the pleasure of reading a literary piece.

Example: The shiny _____ shells _____ shimmered on the shore.

Complete each sentence with an appropriate word to make it alliterative.

1) Barry read a book b_____

2) Flora's _____

3) _____

4) Restless Remington _____

5) Sally's shiny _____

6) The cool cat chills o_____

7) Vibrant violets bloo_____

8) Shaun shifted the _____ swiftly.

9) The _____ glimmered in the gloomy night.

10) Magnificent _____ mesmerize mountaineers.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com