

Allusions

Underline the allusions, and write what each sentence means. Answer the questions or write sentences using the allusions.

1) Harold took command of the office like he was Caesar in Rome.

How do you think Harold's leadership style affected the people in the office?

2) She had the Midas touch.

Name a classmate who has the Midas touch.

3) Their friendship was as strong as steel.

Do you know of a friend who has a friendship as strong as steel?

4) The work had a suavity.

Have you seen art with a suavity?

5) Her promises sounded as hollow as the boy who cried wolf.

Name a politician who made wolf-crying promises.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com