

An adjective clause, also called a relative clause, is a dependent clause that functions as an adjective in a sentence. These are introduced by relative pronouns such as who, which, that, where, when, whose etc.

Example The cops arrested the man who committed the crime.

Underline the adjective clause, and circle the pronoun that introduces it in each sentence.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

- 1) The kids performed really well that was written by Ms Keeling.
- 2) The girl who lives next door is very friendly.
- 3) Greg is a boy who likes to play football.
- 4) This is the restaurant where Marie and Gina met.
- 5) The player who scored the goal was very brave.
- 6) Have you seen the bag which was left in the car?
- 7) Nobody can tell the difference between the two.
- 8) Jerome is a boy who likes to play video games.
- 9) I like Sheila, whom I've known for years, and Brandon too.
- 10) Why did you throw the lasagna, which Mom had spent hours making, in the bin?