

An adjective clause, also called a relative clause, is a dependent clause that functions as an adjective in a sentence. These are introduced by relative pronouns such as who, which, that, where, when, whose, etc.

Example We will forever remember the goal that won us the game.

Underline the adjective clause, and circle the noun it modifies in each sentence.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

- 1) Norman, who leads the high team, greeted the meeting.
- 2) The athlete who won the gold medal was from the United States.
- 3) The village where we went on vacation was very beautiful.
- 4) Donny, whom I've already spoken to, has agreed to the deal.
- 5) Natalie was the first person who got married in the class.
- 6) This is the team which has been playing for many years.
- 7) We knew that the storm was coming when we saw the clouds.
- 8) Mindy is the girl who is always helping others.
- 9) His car, which was bought just a month ago, is already giving him trouble.
- 10) Nancy's house, which is newly painted, is the prettiest in the neighborhood.