

A noun clause is a dependent clause that functions as a noun in a sentence.

Example: The panel couldn't believe that the funds ran low.

direct object

PREVIEW

Underline the noun clause and write what it functions as in each sentence.

1) What Poulina wrote caught Aunt Marge off guard.

2) She gave

3) The color

4) The claim was that the panel couldn't believe that the funds ran low.

5) How the panel couldn't believe that the funds ran low was quite obvious to see.

6) The impression that the panel couldn't believe that the funds ran low was quite obvious to see.

7) Dad couldn't

8) That the kids loved John was quite obvious to see.

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com