

Noun Clauses

A noun clause is a dependent clause that functions as a noun in a sentence.

Example: Whoever wears the number 6 jersey is the captain of our team.

Subject _____

Underline the noun clause, and write what it functions as in each sentence.

1) Some people say that attitude defines our life.

2) How our family got

3) We were talking ab

4) Jake didn't know w

5) I hope that you enj

6) Whoever secures th

7) Roger always finds faults with what Mary does.

8) The channel gives whoever wins the quiz show a free trip to Singapore.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com