

Adverb Clauses

An adverb clause is a dependent clause that functions as an adverb in a sentence.

Example: If you want to succeed in life, don't rely on short cuts.

Underline the adverb clause in each sentence.

1) Grandpa often says, "When we were kids, we enjoyed the little pleasures of life."

2) As soon as the bell rings, the students start talking.

3) Clarice is not so tired because she went to bed early.

4) Nick reacted as if he had never seen the movie before.

5) "It always seems impossible until it's done."

6) We'll go to the market when the rain stops.

7) I would visit the park if I had more time.

8) We don't enter the manager's cabin, unless he calls us.

9) Because she is a fitness freak, Mia goes to the gym regularly.

10) When the cat is away, the mice will play.
