Can or May?

“Can” describes an ability to do something, whereas “may” is used to ask permission or talk about future possibilities.

Examples: He _______ can climb mountains.
Uncle John _______ may visit us this weekend.

Complete each sentence with “can” or “may”.

1) __________ Rebecca write poems?
2) It __________ rain tomorrow.
3) The bottle __________ hold one liter of juice.
4) __________ I accompany you to the library?
5) __________ you recycle these bottles?
6) You __________ use my phone.
7) I __________ solve this puzzle.
8) Mrs. Clark __________ ask you to rewrite the essay.
9) Oliver __________ repair laptops.
10) __________ I join you on the trip to the park?
Complete each sentence with “can” or “may”.

1) Can Rebecca write poems?

2) It may rain tomorrow.

3) The bottle can hold one liter of juice.

4) May I accompany you to the library?

5) Can you recycle these bottles?

6) You may use my phone.

7) I can solve this puzzle.

8) Mrs. Clark may ask you to rewrite the essay.

9) Oliver can repair laptops.

10) May I join you on the trip to the park?