

Name : _____

Fewer Vs Less

“Fewer”, which means not as many, is the comparative form of few, and it's used before countable nouns.

Example: I have fewer cups of tea than I used to.

“Less”, which means not as much, is the comparative form of little, and it's used before uncountable nouns.

Example: I drink less tea than I used to.

Complete each sentence using “fewer” or “less”

- 1) I spent only _____ with.
- 2) Hash browns are not _____ than any other dish.
- 3) Powell makes _____ before.
- 4) I wish I could spend _____.
- 5) Patrick has only _____ amount.
- 6) There were _____ equal.
- 7) The chicken weighed _____ pounds.
- 8) Now that I'm familiar with the city, I take _____ minutes to reach work.
- 9) The storybook will cost only $8 or _____.
- 10) Linda ate _____ marshmallows than Dan.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com