

Name : _____

Is or Are?

“Is” is used with singular subjects, and “are” is used with plural subjects.

Examples: Aaron and Dan are fishing.

The cow is grazing in the meadow.

Complete each sentence with “is” or “are”.

1) Each of the five applicants _____ equally talented.

2) There _____

3) Mom and I _____

4) Montana and Mac _____

5) There _____

6) The candies and t _____

7) There _____

8) The mother bird _____ building a nest.

9) Abigail and her sister _____ decorating the room.

10) Neither the Arctic nor the Atlantic _____ the largest ocean in the world.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

Name : _____

Answer key

Is or Are?

“Is” is used with singular subjects, and “are” is used with plural subjects.

Examples: Aaron and Dan are fishing.

The cow is grazing in the meadow.

Complete each sentence with “is” or “are”.

1) Each of the five applicants is equally talented.

2) There is

3) Mom and I are

4) Montana and Mac are

5) There is

6) The candies and t are

7) There are

8) The mother bird is building a nest.

9) Abigail and her sister are decorating the room.

10) Neither the Arctic nor the Atlantic is the largest ocean in the world.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please
log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com