

Commonly Confused Words

"There" means "in or at that place."

Example: Put the book over there on the table.

"Their" is a possessive adjective and means "belonging to them."

Example: Their pet dog is friendly.

"They're" is the contraction for "they are."

Example: They're heading to school.

PREVIEW

Complete each sentence with they, they're, or there.

- 1) _____
- 2) The key is _____
- 3) _____ dressing up as _____ Halloween.
- 4) The Smiths plan to go to _____ the blue _____.
- 5) Is _____ the _____?
- 6) _____ the _____.
- 7) _____ car broke down on the highway.
- 8) Look, _____ goes the bus we need to catch.
- 9) _____ are fun games to play at the playground.
- 10) It's raining outside, but _____ still going for a walk.

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

