

Commonly Confused Words

"There" means "in or at that place."

Example: There are many colorful flowers in the garden.

"Their" is a possessive adjective and means "belonging to them."

Example: They lost their keys somewhere.

"They're" is the contraction for "they are."

Example: They're going to the park tomorrow.

PREVIEW

Complete each sentence with they, they're, or there.

- 1) The place _____ is very beautiful.
- 2) _____ are my best friends.
- 3) _____ lost their keys.
- 4) Have you seen _____ dog?
- 5) _____ playing in the park.
- 6) Put the groceries _____ the table.
- 7) _____ planting flowers in the garden.
- 8) Can you see the big red slide over _____?
- 9) The students handed in _____ homework.
- 10) We're going to the beach tomorrow, and _____ joining us.

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

