

Commonly Confused Words

To is a preposition with several meanings. To is also used with infinitives.

Example: We are driving to the beach for a vacation.

Too me

Example: It's too late to change our plans now.

Two is a number.

Example: There are two cups of flour for this recipe.

PREVIEW

Complete each sentence with to, too, or two.

- 1) Kyle _____
- 2) The _____
- 3) Ryan walked _____ the store with Abby.

- 4) They are going _____ to the store.
- 5) I want to go _____ to the store.
- 6) The team scored _____ goals.
- 7) He talks _____ much during class.

- 8) Edith is going _____ to the store.

- 9) They waited for _____ hours in line.

- 10) The answer _____ the question is simple.

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

