

Commonly Confused Words

"Will" describes future actions. "Would" describes a strong willingness, and it's also used in conditionals and reported speech.

Example: The twins will swim at 3 years old. (will/would)

If I had wings, I would fly to the moon. (will/would)

PREVIEW

Complete each sentence with "will" or "would"

1) Taylor _____ always sing a song to calm the baby down. (will/would)

2) The cat _____ on the roof when it hears the vacuum cleaner. (will/would)

3) _____ collection of worksheets in all subjects!

4) The Adams _____ visit France next month. (will/would)

5) If I knew the answer, I _____ tell you. (will/would)

6) The movie _____ 7 p.m. (will/would)

7) If you want a new car, you _____ buy a new car. (will/would)

8) We _____ read stories together before bed. (will/would)

9) If I had the money, I _____ buy a new car. (will/would)

10) We _____ go fishing on the weekend if the weather is good.
(will/would)

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com