

Compound Words

Read the story "Last-Minute Triumph" and underline the compound words in it.

On a bright Friday afternoon, the playground was filled with players for the much-anticipated football match. Excitement buzzed through the air as they prepared for the showdown between the Red Rockets and the Blue Thunderbolts. There was a goalpost set, and cheering spectators lined the sidelines, eagerly awaiting the thrilling competition.

As the whistle blew, the game was in full swing. The Red Rockets employed a strategy. The Blue Thunderbolts countered with a strategy of their own, aiming for the goal. The game was intense, with both teams showing great skill and determination, making for a spectacular display of teamwork and strategy.

In the midst of the intense competition, a moment of brilliance emerged. With a swift kick, a Red Rocket player scored a goal, securing a crucial lead for their team. The crowd cheered on as the game continued.

As the match progressed, the game remained deadlocked, with neither team able to break the deadlock. The Blue Thunderbolts, however, managed to break the deadlock with a decisive goal. With a precise pass and a perfectly timed strike, they found the back of the net.

Amidst the cheering, a moment of triumph shone through. Players from both teams congratulated each other on a hard-fought match, showcasing the camaraderie and respect that define the beautiful game of football. As the sun began to set on the playground, the players reflected on a day filled with teamwork, sportsmanship, and the thrill of competition.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com