Gabe looked out the window and saw a hot air balloon just ahead. He could see big, bright balloons in the sky.

"Do you see the red and yellow one?"

Grandpa smiled and pointed to the sky.

Grandpa found the balloon with red and yellow stripes.

"I like the striped one," Gabe said. "I like the green one," Grandpa said. "I like the balloon with red and yellow stripes. It had eyes and a mouth sewn on it."

"I like the green one," Grandpa said.

Gabe had a good day looking at all the balloons. His favorite part was when the balloons flew into the sky!
