Grace shivered when Madeline had finished. "Wow, that was spooky!"

Beth laughed. "If you think that's spooky, wait 'til you hear my story."

Beth started her story. Suddenly, a wailing sound came from behind the tent.

"What was that?" Grace gasped.

"I-I don't know," Madeline whispered.

The wail came again. Then the tent began to shake.

"It's trying to get in!" cried Beth.

"W-where's my flashlight?"

t now—"

"Wooo-eee-oo!"

She kept reassuring Grace that everything will be all right.

She thinks she has the scariest story of all.

Despite being nervous at the beginning, she turned out to be the bravest of all.

She told the story first of all.

She was nervous about attending a slumber party outside.

She sounded brave all the while but cried when the wailing sound came.
