

Conditionals

Read the sentences and decide if the conditionals are zero, first, second, or third.

1) If Dad sees Amy's messy room, he will ground her for a week.

2) Pam would have lost the game if she hadn't practiced so hard.

3) If you

4) David

5) If Jay had

6) Little Alison

7) If David

8) You won't realize your potential if you don't try your best.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com