The m

Second Conditionals

Sheet 3

Use the correct forms of the verbs to make second-conditional sentences.

Susan would come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a choice and a second come with us if she had a second come with us if she had a second come with the second come with us if she had a second come with us if s

- Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!
- 3) If Glen (know) petter, he (not have) arrived late to meetings.
- 4) If the result of tell Members, please log in to log in to download this download this gain complete access.

 Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.
- 5) Mom (www.mathworksheets4kids.com
- 7) Melanie (not speak) to you if you (treat) her friends badly.