Coordinating or Subordinating Conjunctions?

Color the coordinating conjunctions red and the subordinating conjunctions yellow.

Example: Roger will go to the Grand Canyon after he finishes exams.

1) It had been a year since Owen played soccer.
2) Kelly met her childhood friend before she left Chicago.
3) Sylvia offered to help with my chores, but I refused.
4) Start practicing today, or you will never be ready for the race.
5) Although the house is old, it has modern amenities.
6) Ms. Ellen’s kitchen garden is small, yet she grows many vegetables in it.
7) As soon as I rang the doorbell, the dog came running.
8) Though she was bored, Martha preferred to stay indoors.
9) Nancy and Janice will come home tomorrow.
10) It was raining, so the children didn’t go out to play.
Coordinating or Subordinating Conjunctions?

Color the coordinating conjunctions red and the subordinating conjunctions yellow.

Example: Roger will go to the Grand Canyon after he finishes exams.

1) It had been a year since Owen played soccer.

2) Kelly met her childhood friend before she left Chicago.

3) Sylvia offered to help with my chores, but I refused.

4) Start practicing from today, or you will never be ready for the race.

5) Although the house is old, it has modern amenities.

6) Ms. Ellen’s kitchen garden is small, yet she grows many vegetables in it.

7) As soon as I rang the doorbell, the dog came running.

8) Though she was bored, Martha preferred to stay indoors.

9) Nancy and Janice will come home tomorrow.

10) It was raining, so the children didn’t go out to play.