

Name : _____

Correlative Conjunctions

Shade the correlative-conjunction pair and highlight the equivalent elements in each sentence. Point an arrow to each equivalent element.

Example: Jen's essays are not only interesting but also flawless.

1) We are planning to go for either a movie or a concert.

2) I prefer both olive

3) Hardly had the fli

4) His stories are no

5) Simon's goal was

6) We would rather

7) Sam could go neither snorkeling nor scuba diving.

8) Ralph could not make up his mind whether to enroll himself for the dance class or football coaching.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

Name : _____

Correlative Conjunctions

Shade the correlative-conjunction pair and highlight the equivalent elements in each sentence. Point an arrow to each equivalent element.

Example: Jen's essays are not only interesting but also flawless.

1) We are planning to go for either a movie or a concert.

2) I prefer both olive

3) Hardly had the fli

4) His stories are no

5) Simon's goal was

6) We would rather

7) Sam could go neither snorkeling nor scuba diving.

8) Ralph could not make up his mind whether to enroll himself for the dance class or football coaching.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com