

Correlative Conjunctions

Correlative conjunctions are joining words that always come in pairs.
Example: Both cats and dogs are wild animals at the pet show.

Underline the correlative conjunctions in each sentence.

- 1) Neither the teacher nor the students liked the new school rule.
- 2) Not only did she sing beautifully, but she also danced.
- 3) Ralph went to the test.
- 4) Tia is much better than her partner.
- 5) Whenever you see us, we'll be there.
- 6) Share your book with a friend.
- 7) You can choose as many toppings as you like for your ice cream.
- 8) No sooner did she finish her presentation than the audience applauded.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com