

Correlative Conjunctions

Correlative conjunctions are joining words that always come in pairs.

Example: Not only did Patricia sing, but she also danced on the stage.

Underline the correlative conjunctions in each sentence.

- 1) Barbara is both intelligent and hard working.
- 2) Neither the teacher nor the students went on the field trip.
- 3) We could go to either the beach or the mountains for our vacation destination.
- 4) It was such a beautiful day that we decided to go to the beach.
- 5) We need to hurry to get to the airport or we will miss our flight.
- 6) He would rather work than take the bus.
- 7) No sooner did she enter the room than everyone fell silent.
- 8) The library has as many books as the bookstore across the street.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com