

Name : _____

Conjunctions

Underline the conjunctions. State whether they are coordinating conjunctions, subordinating conjunctions, or correlative conjunctions.

Example: I do not eat meat, for I am a vegetarian.

Coordinating conjunction

1) No sooner had I started watching TV than the power went off.

Correlative conjunctions

2) People destroy forests in order that they can build more houses.

3) Michael has a good friend who lives in the city.

4) Rachel loves reading because she likes to learn new things.

5) We enjoyed the game very much.

6) Dominic likes not only reading but also playing sports.

7) Ralph is tall, but he is not very strong.

8) Jimmy is not only smart but also friendly.

Correlative conjunctions

9) You can borrow this book whenever you want to read it.

Subordinating conjunction

10) Terrell went scuba diving and photographed the coral reef.

Coordinating conjunction

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com