

Determiners and Quantifiers

While a cardinal determiner specifies a quantity to the noun it's followed by, an ordinal determiner helps identify the order or position of the noun.

Examples:

examples of ordinal determiners are first, second, third, fourth, etc.

Examples:

PREVIEW

Complete each sentence choosing the correct determiner.

- 1) Millie has _____ of the class.
- 2) Jocelyn is _____ of the class.
- 3) This is the _____ Grandmother's birthday dinner.
(fifth/five)
- 4) The tray can hold _____ cookies.
- 5) The company is _____ employees. (four/fourth)
- 6) Our school is hosting the _____ zonal tournament. (eleven/eleventh)
- 7) The Browns celebrated their _____ anniversary in Cabo.
(twenty-two/twenty-second)
- 8) Aunt Jodie lives _____ miles from us. (eightieth/eighty)

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com