

Determiners and Quantifiers

While a cardinal determiner specifies a quantity to the noun it's followed by, an ordinal determiner helps identify the order or position of the noun.

Examples:

examples of ordinal determiners are first, second, third, fourth, etc.

Examples:

PREVIEW

Complete each sentence choosing the correct determiner.

1) John's birthday is on the _____ day of the month. (fourth/sixth)

2) Student _____ is the best in the class. (twelfth/twelve)

3) April is the _____ month of the year. (fourth/four)

4) The boy watched _____ movies last week. (three/third)

5) The singer won _____ awards. (fourth/four)

6) Mr. Mason owns the _____ house down the street. (seventh/seven)

7) Christmas is celebrated on the _____ of December. (twenty-five/twenty-fifth)

8) The Coopers have _____ grandkids. (twenty-third/twenty-three)

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com