

Determiners and Quantifiers

Possessive determiners are determiners specifying who owns or possesses something.

Example I'm going out with my friends.

Underline the possessive determiner in each of the sentences.

1) Working out will improve your muscle tone.

2) My goal is to be a professional athlete.

3) The kids in my class are very smart.

4) We had planned to renovate our house last summer.

5) The little puppy barked happily.

6) Sharon went to the store to buy some fruit.

7) Josh was dropping his books on the floor.

8) I will ask my teacher for help.

9) The garden was full of flowers in the spring.

10) The Andersons have parked their car in the driveway.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com