

Determiners and Quantifiers

A predeterminer is a word or phrase used before a determiner to give further information about a noun or noun phrase.

Example : Mona ate two-thirds of the lasagna for lunch.

PREVIEW

Use the correct predeterminer from the word box in each sentence.

1) I can't believe _____ in making my first leap.

2) We have _____

3) Molly visited _____

4) Use _____

5) The children have _____

6) Ben drank _____

7) _____

8) The lot _____

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

three times

four times

two-thirds of what