

Name : _____

Predeterminers

A predeterminer is a word or phrase used before a determiner to give further information about a noun or noun phrase.

Example: What an astonishing match this is turning out to be!

Use the correct determiner from the word box in each sentence.

1) Walden felt proud of working with _____ an accomplished group of people.

2) It was customary for _____ a week.

3) Taking care of the _____ a task for the nanny.

4) _____ biggest mysteries of the world.

5) This trick has been _____ s.

6) The pug was only _____ at it was attempting to chase.

7) Jenny decided to i _____ n.

8) Though Ursula was _____ our age, she had a vivacity that we all envied.

twice

double

both

half

three times

all quite

such Predeterminers

A predeterminer is a word or phrase used before a determiner to give further information about a noun or noun phrase.

Example: What an astonishing match this is turning out to be!

Use the correct determiner from the word box in each sentence.

1) Walden felt proud of working with such an accomplished group of people.

2) It was customary for him to go to the gym three times a week.

3) Taking care of the house was quite a task for the nanny.

4) Both the detective and the scientist were interested in the biggest mysteries of the world.

5) This trick has been used by magicians for centuries.

6) The pug was only half the size of the dog it was attempting to chase.

7) Jenny decided to double the amount of money she had saved.

8) Though Ursula was twice our age, she had a vivacity that we all envied.

twice

double

both

half

three times

all

quite

such

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com