

Compound Indirect Objects

A compound indirect object occurs when more than one noun, pronoun, or a group of words acting as a noun receives the result or benefit of the action.

Example The organizer sent journalists and bloggers invitations to the event.

PREVIEW

Underline the compound indirect object in each sentence.

- 1) Seona made her sister and her friend bracelets.
- 2) Martha gave her mother and her friends some flowers.
- 3) The manager sent the organizers and the speakers invitations to the event.
- 4) Morgan brought his coat and his bag to the school.
- 5) He showed his parents and his friends the new app.
- 6) Dr. Foster gave the patients and the nurses some medicine.
- 7) The teacher offered the students and his friends some extra work.
- 8) Mr. Anderson sent his editor and the fans copies of the book.
- 9) The magician handed Liam and Claire magical wands.
- 10) The novelist sent his editor and the fans copies of the book.

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

