

Spot the Indirect Objects

An indirect object is a noun or pronoun that receives the result or benefit of the verb in a sentence.

Example: They want to show you their appreciation.

Underline the indirect object in each sentence.

1) I gave Mark a book for his birthday.

2) The shoemaker helped me with the right size.

3) She ordered a new dress for me.

4) The teacher assigned them a challenging task.

5) They bought a new car for their father.

6) The waiter gave me a glass of water.

7) Please send Dora a letter with love.

8) We presented the king with a crown.

9) The mother gave her child a toy.

10) She handed him a cup of coffee.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

